LIVE BANDS
Non Stop

For our 20th anniversary we have put together a very special line-up. Alongside many of the bands you have come to love over the past years, two extraordinary highlights await you:

- Les Greene and Sean McDonald take the stage together in a very special collaboration, created exclusively for this anniversary edition. With their powerful voices, unique musical personalities and deep roots in Rhythm'n'Blues, Rock'n'Roll and Soul, this promises to be one of the musical highlights of RTSF 2027.

- Another extraordinary highlight you should not miss is David Hermlin And His Swing Dance Orchestra. To mark 100 years of Lindy Hop, David is coming for the very first time with his complete 15-piece Big Band.

LES GREENE (USA)

FACEBOOK: JEX. WELLINGTONIII
INSTAGRAM: IAMLESGREENE

Les Greene is a powerhouse performer bringing the raw energy of Rock'n'Roll, Rhythm'n'Blues and Soul to the stage. A modern-day mix of Little Richard and James Brown, with a twist of Motown.

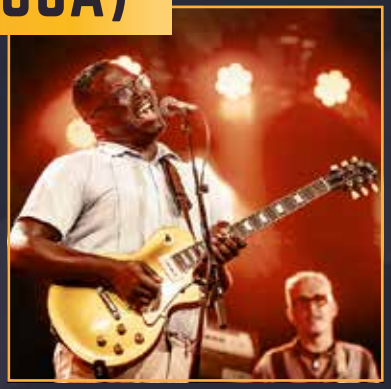

Known as the singing voice of Little Richard in Baz Luhrmann's "Elvis" and its Grammy-nominated soundtrack, Les combines explosive showmanship with a sound rooted in the greats—yet unmistakably his own.

With his band The Swayzees, he has toured extensively throughout the US and Europe, captivating audiences with a high-energy live show made for dancing. Soul-inspired vintage Rock'n'Roll—guaranteed to get you moving!

SEAN MCDONALD (USA)

Don't be fooled by his young age—Sean "Mack" McDonald has the voice, soul and presence of a true old-school performer. Born in Augusta, Georgia, Sean grew up surrounded by the sounds of Blues, Gospel, Rhythm'n'Blues, Rock'n'Roll, Soul and Jazz—influences that still shape his music today. With his mesmerizing voice, natural stage presence and deep love for Black American roots music, Sean brings these traditions to life with remarkable authenticity and energy.

His talent has already taken him to renowned stages including the Lucerne Blues Festival and the Legendary Rhythm & Blues Cruise, as well as performances across Europe and the US. A young voice with deep roots—and a sound made for the dance floor.

SI CRANSTOUN (GBR)

SICRANSTOUN.COM

Si Cranstoun is a fabulous throwback to the old swing blues shouters of the 1940s and 1950s. Si is a successful bandleader and songwriter with dancefloor hits like "Dynamo," "Coupe De Ville," "Ella Ella," and many more that have remained favorites in the vintage scene now for over a decade.

He has been compared to many old greats like Jackie Wilson, Wynonie Harris, or Sam Cooke, but Si remains his own man with his own distinct voice and repertoire. His super-happy charisma and stage presence guarantee a joyful show tailored to your dancing feet.

Backed by the fantastic Boogie Banausen, Si Cranstoun is guaranteed to set the dance floor on fire with an electrifying show packed with infectious rhythms, irresistible energy, and pure rockin' Rhythm'n'Blues!

DAVID HERMLIN AND HIS SWING DANCE ORCHESTRA (GER)

© Uwe Hauth

For the 100th anniversary of Lindy Hop, David Hermlin returns to the Rock That Swing Festival in a very special way: for the first time at RTSF, the orchestra will take the stage in its complete 15-piece Big Band line-up.

The Swing Dance Orchestra is far more than just another Swing band. For decades, it has stood for musicianship at the highest level, an extraordinary dedication to the sound and spirit of the 1930s and 40s, and a live experience that brings the golden age of Swing vividly back to life.

At the heart of the orchestra is David Hermlin—bandleader, arranger, composer and an exceptional drummer whose playing is deeply rooted in the great Swing drummers of the era. But David is just as remarkable as an entertainer: with his energy, charm and natural stage presence, he embodies the kind of showmanship rarely seen since the great bandleaders of the 1930s.

Since taking over the orchestra in 2026, David's own compositions and arrangements have increasingly shaped its sound, while his sister Rachel Hermlin brings another distinctive voice to the band as its singer.

Instruments, microphones, music stands and wardrobe reflect the period down to the smallest detail—but this is no museum piece. Classics such as "Moonlight Serenade," "Caravan," "Begin the Beguine" and "In the Mood" meet forgotten treasures and original arrangements, played with tremendous drive, precision and personality.

Fifteen musicians, the full sound of a great Swing orchestra and one of the most charismatic young bandleaders of today—a very special Big Band highlight for the 20th anniversary of Rock That Swing and 100 years of Lindy Hop.

NP BIG BAND (ITA)

With a powerful, full-throttle sound, the NP Big Band, an 18-piece orchestra, brings the golden age of swing roaring back to life. They play the iconic music of the great orchestras of the 30s and 40s, delivering both original charts and rare gems from Artie Shaw, Chick Webb, Benny Goodman, Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey and many more—guaranteed to thrill dancers and swing lovers alike.

A yearly highlight is the Jamboree Revue, where the musicians showcase their remarkable versatility, creativity and showmanship.

NPBIGBAND.IT

JIVE ACES (GBR)

The Jive Aces are one of the world's most beloved Jumpin' Jive bands, thrilling audiences in over 40 countries since 1989. United by their shared passion for American roots music, they've released 13 albums so far. Vintage Rock magazine crowned them the "UK's number one jive and swing band" in its June 2015 issue.

Their live performances are bursting with joy, energy, and a contagious excitement that makes it impossible to stay still. With a mix of timeless classics and their own fantastic originals, they'll have you dancing the night away. Their most popular music video, "Bring Me Sunshine," went viral, racking up nearly 4 million views and spreading smiles everywhere.

Jessie Gordon is a singer, songwriter, dancer and producer who brings her love of old-world jazz, blues and roots music vibrantly into the present. A multi-award-winning performer, she has toured internationally across Europe, Asia and Australia, fronting ensembles from intimate duos to big bands. Jessie has recorded more than ten albums worldwide, including acclaimed collaborations in Berlin and Australia.

With her confident, warm and effervescent stage presence, she captivates audiences wherever she performs. At RTSF she appears as a featured vocalist with several festival bands, among them The Swing Shouters.

JUMPIN' UP (ITA)

The music of Jumpin' Up is an explosive blend of Blues, Swing and Rock'n'Roll—but above all, pure 50s Jive. Their main inspirations include Louis Jordan, Louis Prima, Sam Butera, Wynonie Harris, Roy Brown, as well as Italian greats like Renato Carosone and Fred Buscaglione.

Following in the footsteps of these icons, they combine powerhouse musicianship with the charismatic voice of their dynamic frontman, creating a show bursting with energy, rhythm and vintage flair.

MARTÍN BURGUEZ & HIS RHYTHM COMBO (ESP)

Martín Burguez & His Rhythm Combo light up the stage with a fiery mix of 40s and 50s Rhythm'n'Blues, Jump Blues and early Rock'n'Roll.

Inspired by icons like Big Joe Turner and T-Bone Walker, the Barcelona-based sextet unites some of the city's top musicians, shaping a sound where tight arrangements, driving grooves and vintage flair meet youthful energy.

With sharp originals and supercharged classics, they deliver an electrifying show that grabs you from the first note and keeps dancers swinging all night.

SWING LYONS (GER)

Swing Lyons bring the fiery spirit of French Gypsy-Swing straight to the banks of the Isar in Munich. Born from a German-French musical friendship, this band blends Django-style guitar power with the full sound of vocals, bass, saxophone, violin and drums. Whether playing Django Reinhardt classics, bar-jazz, big-band tunes or blues, their driving Gypsy guitars give everything a fresh, wild and irresistible groove.

With their mix of Parisian flair and 30s/40s swing energy, Swing Lyons deliver a show that gets dancers moving and captures the vibrant heartbeat of Gypsy Swing.

FACEBOOK: SWINGLYONS

DEE DEE & THE BEL AIRS (GER)

Dee Dee and his Bel Airs burst onto the scene in 1988 as a neo-rockabilly band. Their debut LP "Rock-a-Billy Boogie Tonight" became a hit and took them to major festivals across Europe and the UK.

With the addition of the "Harmony Five," their sound shifted toward Doo Wop and Jive. In the mid-90s they embraced the neo-swing movement, and "Night Out in Bel Air" soared up the MP3 charts world-wide.

Today, Dee Dee is back on stage, dedicated to the jump blues of the '40s and '50s—energetic, danceable, and full of life.

The Legends

SONNY Allen & BARBARA Billups

Sonny Allen is a professional Swing and Tap dancer, choreographer, musician and singer, who danced Lindy Hop at New York's famous Savoy Ballroom and Mambo at Manhattan's Palladium Ballroom during the 1950s.

He is also the 1958 Harvest Moon Ball Champion, achieving 1st place with Marcella Washington, even though Barbara Billups had been his regular dance partner since 1956.

As the founder and leader of the dance troupe "Sonny Allen and the Rockets," featuring fellow Savoy ballroom dancers, such as Sugar Sullivan and Barbara Billups, he toured successfully and worked with jazz greats such as Nat King Cole, Tony Bennett, Ruth Brown and Eartha Kitt.

With a wide range of dance styles such as Lindy Hop, Mambo, Foxtrot and Tap under his belt, Sonny developed his own unique dance style and uses his vast historical and technical knowledge of the dance for classes, lectures and history discussions.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY AT RTSF.

Barbara Billups is a dancer and singer, who started dancing Jive, Ballroom and a range of solo dances at school, during the 1940s.

During the 1950s she started dancing at the famous Savoy Ballroom in New York, where she was quickly embraced by the Savoy Ballroom dancers such as George Sullivan, while social dancing with the likes of Al Minns and Leon James to live music from bands such as Count Basie's.

She developed a love of acrobatic aerials and fast Lindy Hop, achieving 3rd place in the 1958 Harvest Moon Ball Competition with Willie Posey, and later became a singer and dancer in Sonny Allen and the Rockets, a dance troupe that toured all over the USA.

These days Barbara is keen to dance and share her passion for dance, regularly teaching with both Sugar Sullivan and Joseph Sewell.

The Rock That Swing Ball

is the first of two Rock That Swing Festival nights in the historical building of the Deutsches Theater. Seven terrific bands (Les Greene & Sean McDonald, NP Big Band, Martín Burguez & His Rhythm Combo, Gentlemen & Gangsters, Jive Aces, Jumpin' Up and Jessie Gordon), several DJs and the big Jamboree Revue will create an unforgettable evening. Be impressed by the Champions' phenomenal vintage dance show, with numbers in Lindy Hop, Shag, Balboa, Boogie Woogie and Burlesque danced by world-class performers. The spontaneous jam session by the musicians from the various bands takes place at the Jamboree Ball this year.

Two beautiful ballrooms and two additional dance floors will bring the 1920s to 1950s back to life and create a sparkling and unforgettable atmosphere. Let yourself be carried away in the very special atmosphere of the evening, enjoy the rocking and swinging sound of the bands and dance with dancers from all over the world. Take part and slip into the roles of Fred Astaire, Elvis or Marilyn Monroe. Put pomade in your hair, style your hair into a quiff, tie your hair in a ponytail, or put your hair up and decorate it with flowers.

A very special highlight is the great Jamboree Revue, where the singers of the various bands take the stage together with the NP Big Band. New this year: the Revue is on the program on Saturday – in previous years it was on Sunday.

If you can't swing dance yet, you can take part in a Swing Dance Intro Class before the live music starts. You can choose between classes in Boogie Woogie, Lindy Hop, Rockabilly Jive and Shag. The teachers will teach you a few steps in the particular dance so that you can have fun with the other Hep Cats on the dance floor during the evening.

The Jamboree Ball

is the second of two evening events of the Rock That Swing Festival at the Deutsches Theater and the climax of the Rock That Swing Festival. So don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime event. Six terrific bands (David Hermlin And His Swing Dance Orchestra, Si Cranstoun, The Swing Shouters feat. Lizzy Bourbon & Jessie Gordon, Jumpin' Up, Jive Aces and Boogie Banausen) and several DJs will create an unforgettable evening. To round off the night, the musicians from the various bands play a spontaneous jam session.

Two beautiful ballrooms and two additional dance floors will let you explore the eras of the Roarin' 20s to the Rockin' 50s. Experience the exuberant feeling from the golden 20s through the swinging 30s and 40s to the wild 50s: sizzling nights with elegant people and cool attitudes, dressed up in vintage clothing, petticoats or suits. Paired with the rooms of the Deutsches Theater, this offers an impressive setting for another great evening of music, dance, shows and contests.

You can dance all night long, listen to thrilling music, take a trip down memory lane, drool over the musicians, or just plunge into the special atmosphere. Watch the contestants striving to impress the audience and be amazed by the Vintage Dance Show of the Champions that will climax with the Killer Boogie. World-class performers dance numbers in Lindy Hop, Shag, Balboa, Boogie Woogie and Burlesque.

If you are new to Swing dancing you can join a Swing Dance Intro Class before the live music starts. You can choose between introductory classes in Lindy Hop, Boogie Woogie, Rockabilly Jive, or 20s Solo Charleston. In these classes you will learn the basics and a few steps to make sure that you can join all the crazy Hep Cats on the dance floor.

DANCING AND TEACHING TOGETHER FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS.

INVENTORS OF THE FAMOUS KILLER BOOGIE ROUTINE

With their knowledge, energy, commitment, and lifelong passion for the Swing dances Marcus and Bärbl have contributed enormously to the Swing dance community. Their teaching and performances have been influencing many dancers worldwide. Before the time of DVDs and YouTube their instructional VHS videos were one of the first worldwide sources to learn the various styles of Swing dancing. In all those years they have continuously grown the community and introduced many new international talents through the events they have created.

Since December 2011 they have been operating their own dance studio in the city center of Munich—the Vintage Club. Together with their team of internationally respected teachers they offer regular classes, workshops and dance parties.
